The original institution at Flint included the insane, the deaf and dumb, and the blind. In 1857 the insane were committed to the charge of a separate board of trustees until its organization as the Michigan Asylum for the Insane, at Kalamazoo, in 1859. By act No. 250 of 1859 a separate school for the blind was established at Lansing, and opened Sept. 29, 1880. Changes in title: 1. From 1854 to 1857 called Michigan State Asylum for the Insane and for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. 2. From 1858 to 1868, Michigan Asylum for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. 3. From 1869 to 1880, Michigan Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. 4. From 1880 to 1886, Michigan Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb. 5. The present title was adopted in 1887.
